PROLIFICS – TWO-TIME IBM TECHNICAL EXCELLENCE AWARD-WINNER LAUNCHES TECHNOLOGY BLOG

NEW YORK, New York – June 18, 2009 – Prolifics, the largest end-to-end systems integrator specializing in IBM technologies, today announced that it has launched its technology blog featuring entries from its award-winning technology team including practice managers, solution directors and consultants. Prolifics' technical excellence and leadership has been the cornerstone of its success and longevity for over 30 years.

The newly offered blog, located via the link (<http://prolificstech.blogspot.com>), will be a repository of information on a variety of subject matters including SOA, portal, security, information management, application management, quality assurance and testing, technology migrations, J2EE development and more.

Kadeer Beg, CTO of Prolifics stated, "The Technology Team at Prolifics is comprised by some of the most creative and innovative individuals in the industry and have proven themselves time and again with our customers over the course of our 30 plus years in business. Providing exemplary customer service has always been paramount for our company which is why we wanted to offer our technical expertise in an ongoing format. The Technology Blog will be a great opportunity for our team to share the most current information about our industry with our customers and Web site visitors."

Prolifics also has a twitter feed located at <http://twitter.com/prolifics> and YouTube channel located at <http://youtube.com/prolificstv> for surfers to get the latest news of what's going on at the company.
