Prolifics' DataPower Quick Start

Harness The Power Of Your Secure, Fast and Reliable SOA Appliance

IBM® WebSphere® DataPower® SOA Appliances represent an important element in your holistic approach to Service Oriented Architecture (SOA). These SOA appliances are purpose-built, easy-to-deploy network devices that simplify, help secure, and accelerate your XML and Web services deployments while extending your SOA infrastructure. They offer an innovative and practical approach to harness the power of SOA and enable you to leverage the value of your existing application, security, and networking infrastructure investments.

Prolifics' has been recognized as a leading DataPower expert and can provide the following services to unleash the power of IBM WebSphere DataPower in your implementation.

DataPower Quick Start Programs Available

Develop your WebSphere DataPower strategy; access a wealth of WebSphere DataPower training and mentoring expertise; and minimize your implementation risk. Prolifics will help implement a DataPower solution in your SOA infrastructure.

Architecture Review and Recommendations – approximately 3 days

A Prolifics consultant will:

- Conduct an interactive workshop that will focus on DataPower integration specifically in your environment. In addition, we will deliver a proposal with recommendations for achieving both short and longer term goals.

Installation and Configuration Program — up to five days

A Prolifics consultant will:

- Install and configure your WebSphere DataPower SOA appliance
- Provide network configuration and monitoring assistance
- Administer basic instruction/mentoring on the use of the administration console and the command line interface
- Supply security, access control and/or transformation mentoring geared specifically to your requirements
