

Technology Migration:

iPlanet™ to IBM WebSphere™

Enterprise Flexibility, Business Agility.

Companies are faced with IT challenges everyday in supporting new corporate directives and business demands. Has your technology reached an End-of-Service-Life and considering migrating to an industry leader offering more growth potential? Do you need to migrate your IT infrastructure to support new corporate standards? Have you adapted your systems to reach new audiences and generate higher returns?

Prolifics' Migration Services provide companies with a technology foundation flexible to changing business demands. Our specialized group of IBM WebSphere Consultants have built a knowledgebase of the compatibility and functional differences, as well as best practices around migration techniques. Prolifics Consultants can help you transform your IT infrastructure from Sun iPlanet to IBM WebSphere, whether in an advisory role or conducting the entire migration.

Our Architects and Technology Experts

OUR INTEGRATION SKILLS AS YOUR TECHNOLOGY ADVANTAGE

Prolifics is 1 of only 3 WebSphere Service Providers retained by IBM. Along with our 29 years of accumulated best practices around Enterprise Integrations, Prolifics has certified trainers and developers with vast practical experience conducting iPlanet to WebSphere migrations.

Our team of specialists work together with your business experts to determine the required level of migration, from simply porting the code to restructuring the architecture.

- ◆ Kickoff: We team with you to define the goals and objectives of the overall project.
- ◆ Discovery & Assessment: Our solution includes a discovery and assessment phase to determine the required level of migration, whether porting or re-architecting. We will provide a scope of work and cost estimate as the end deliverable.

- ◆ Pilot & Development: Start with our end-to-end migration pilot to prove feasibility. Next we will assist with the full project lifecycle, including project management, architectural advisement, implementation and deployment.

Prolifics provides incremental deliverables and checkpoints to foster healthy communication and ensure your project is right on track.

Let our migration solutions build agility into your business—enabling you to reach new markets, standardize your corporate IT strategy, and leverage intellectual property.
