

WebSphere MQ LifeCycle Services

Globalization and Business Process Consolidation are some of the forces behind today's business landscape. Business integration challenges like these require companies to adapt and connect existing SCM, CRM, and ERP systems to accommodate new business approaches. Prolifics' certified WebSphere MQ Administrators, Architects and Developers leverage their wealth of expertise and best practices around business integration and WebSphere MQ to deliver fully integrated solutions with speed and flexibility.

As a Premier Level IBM Business Partner, Prolifics has been selected as one of only three worldwide WebSphere Service Providers retained by IBM. Recognized for excellence in leveraging information technology to deliver e-business solutions, Prolifics is ranked as a Level 5 WebSphere Partner—IBM's highest ranking on its technical expertise scale.

"Prolifics has developed technical, mentoring, training and recruitment skills that are on par with in-house specialists at IBM," Paraic Sweeney, VP of Marketing for IBM's WebSphere Software Platform. "A level-five rating means you're a master. You can teach and mentor others." (Sm@rtPartner Magazine)
